BOOTS, SHOES AND RUBBERS. AT W. E. ROSS' No. 5, MERCHANIS' ROW, Which will be sold very cheap for cash,

First comes the child that cannot talk, But thinks, sometimes, he'd like to walk; Its feet in socks he can't endure, But longs for something more secure. Then take him out some pleasant day, And call at Hose' on your way; A pair of shoes, to suit his mind, When you are there you'll easy find.

Next comes the youth o'er which you fret, Because his feet are always wet; The reason why his shoes are poor And do not keep his feet secure. Then go to Ross and get a pair That you are sure has got the wear. They suit the child, no more he'll cry, Because his feet are warm and dry. The next, a Miss, with shining eyes, Who thinks her boots are quite a prize They set so neat and look so trim, They make her foot look very slim. The style is new—the price is low— You'll find such how on Merchants' Row; Five the number and Ross the name; He'll suit you, too, if any can,

Then comes the gent that looks so prim, His clothes are all you see of him. The tatior made him all complete, But Mr. Ross has dressed his feet, To see him now would make you laugh, Head and feet the same, both show the calf. Then comes the man who shows his sense by buying boots at less expense. He takes a pair that's good and strong, That wears full well and lasts him long. He purchased them at Ross' Store, And when they're gone he'll get some more The lady too, who'll reason use,
Will go to Ross and buy her shoes.
The price is small, the goods are good,
And that's a thing well understood.
Her bargain's good, she'll near complain,
And when they're gone she'll come again. There's Rubbers too, in every style As good as you'll find for many a mile. Thick boots that suit the farmer's eye, And when he sees he'll surely buy; For the soles are thek, the legs are long. And the seams are sewed both neat strong,

Beal Estate.

The subscribers offer for sale their farm, sit-ated about two miles from the village of Bel-aws Falls, on the Chester road, well known

JOHN CLARK FARM.

Containing about three hundred and fifty acres of land; two dwelling houses, three barns and two tenant houses, near the railroad track. The tenant houses are new. The large farm house has been thoroughly repaired and painted, with new piazza in front and end, new front fence, all in the most substantial and tasteful manner, making it a destrable residence. Nearly three-fourths of a mile of new water pipe from a never-falling fountain supplies all the premises.

has been expended within the past two years on buildings and fences, besides the tenant houses. The land is adapted to the raising of all kinds of crops. Some fifty acres are well adapted for tobacco. The land is now under a good state of cultivation, by having been fed out a large amount of hay and grain the pass two years, which has been brought on the place, besides that which the farm has produced. The castern line is the Connecticut river had the farm laying westerly, divided into pasture and tilliage land, with a sufficient supply of wood for the premises. Situated so near the village of Bellows Falls—a village growing more rapidly than any place within the State, and with its unlimited water power, which is fast being improved, must continue to increase it as still larger proportion in the future—makes it he most destrable farm in those parts. Possession given immediately, except the mility and, and that in one year. Inquire of the subscribers on the primises; or Joseph Wilson, firm of J. Wilson & Co., hear the depot; or Wilder & Hopkins, at West Rupert, Vt.
